

Enhancing our European network

Whether your clients plan to return to familiar places or reconnect with loved ones, they can rediscover our expanding European network including popular cities like Paris, Athens, Madrid, Zurich, and more.

Offering more reliable travel options to over 140 destinations globally, your clients can benefit from increased frequencies during the Northern Summer 2021 season* to selected European destinations including:

Belgrade
Increasing to daily flights from 2 July

Copenhagen
Increasing to 10 weekly flights from 10 July

Madrid
Increasing to 11 weekly flights from 11 July

Stockholm
Increasing to 11 weekly flights from 11 July

We remain committed to the Australian and New Zealand markets, with 27 weekly flights serving six cities. We are proud to have kept flying throughout the pandemic, and bringing home as many travellers as possible.

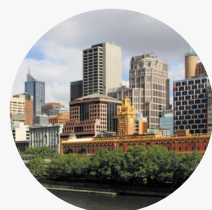

Adelaide
Three weekly flights

Auckland
Three weekly flights via Brisbane

Brisbane
Three weekly flights

Melbourne
Daily flights

Perth
Four weekly flights

Sydney
Daily flights

Offering the highest standards of hygiene with a 5-Star COVID-19 Safety Rating from Skytrax for both our airline and airport.

Proud to be flying one of the youngest, most efficient and sustainable fleets.

Your travellers can plan ahead and change if they need with guaranteed flexibility.[^]

Contact your Qatar Airways Sales Representative for more information about our network.

* Until 30 October 2021

[^] Terms and conditions apply. Click here for more information on our Guaranteed Flexibility policy

Going places together

